

PNer and KPner need to be executed by Windows using Cygwin (it can be found from <http://www.cygwin.com>), and PNoPNer is executed by Windows. There are three examples, i.e., DPP (Dinning Philosophers Problem), ABP (Alice-Bob Protocol) and RT-System (a 2-processor 3-task real-time system), and users can test this tool by these examples.